

GENERAL ASSISTANT

Job Description

We are looking for two part time Food and Beverage General Assistants for our new Country Club and Spa. This is an essential back-of-house support role. Maintaining the general cleanliness within the F & B department and new state-of-the-art kitchen, you will be working with your front of house and kitchen colleagues to ensure that exceptional service is provided to all our guests at all times. Supporting the waiters, waitresses and Chef de Rang, your work will help to ensure a superb experience for all Country Club guests for food and beverage service throughout the day.

This is a part time (20 hours) position and includes working shifts. Previous experience is preferable, but not essential.
